PURPOSE:

The purpose is to promote the retention of underrepresented and minority students by providing services to: ease their transition into college, increase academic success, provide information on campus and community resources, and enhancing their overall experience here on the Mansfield Campus especially during their first year.

GOALS:

The goal of the program is to assist first-year minority students in their transition to The Ohio State University-Mansfield and proactively empower them through programs and services designed to provide comprehensive personal, academic, social, cultural, leadership and professional development.

SERVICES PROVIDED:

- ⇒ Mentoring
- ⇒ Social Activities and Events
- ⇒ Academic Support
- ⇒ Cultural Support
- ⇒ Monthly meetings

If you're interested in being a part of this program,
